LECTURE BY DR. HAWTHORNE AT THE GRACE-STREET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH .- It is a pleasant spectacle to see the different denominations contributing their talent and means to the assistance of one another. Dr. Hawthorne, of the First Baptist church, at the request of the Ladles' Industrial Society of the Grace-Street Presbyterian church, has consented to deliver his popular and eloquent lecture, "Be True to Thysell," for their benefit. These ladies cannot be too much commended in their unselfish efforts to pay off their church debt. They deserve public recognition and assistance. The lecture will be delivered to-night at o'clock at the Grace-Street Presbyterian church, corner of Fourth and Grace.

Captain John S. to represent the Readjusters. An equitable division of time was agreed upon, by which Captain John S. was to open in a speech of an hour-be to be allowed a few moments extra to make a personal statement in regard to the Garfieldeter matter—Captain George D. to reply in an hour's speech, and each to have twenty injustes for rejoinder.

Captain John S. declared that the issue in Virginia was between Funderism and Readjustment, and took up much of his time in arreigning the Funder party. He was frequently applicable by that portion of the crowd endorsing his scutiments, and interspersed his speech largely with ancedotes. But the appearance of Captain George D. It was indeed an old rebel yell and a signal of victory. The speaker at once charged his opponent with standing up and defending a local issue and not dispessing the great national issues which are now to seriously before the country, and for not telling the poople where he stood—L. 4., what party he would ally bismelf with elected to the Congress of the United takes. TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THAT VALUABLE AND SPLENDIDLY-IMPROVED

ON OAKWOOD AVENUE, ADJOINING THE CITY LIMITS, AND KNOWN AS THE VINEYARD OF

AND VEGETABLES GENERALLY,

AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

In execution of two certain deeds executed respectively to me on the 17th day of February, 1874, and on the 7th of August, 1874, both recorded in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, Deed-Book 108 B, page 117, and Inced-Book 108 A, page 248, and in the County Court of Henrico, Deed-Book 24, page 95, and 93, page 158, I shall, at the request of the beneficiary, default having been made in the payment of the money secured by said deeds, proceed to sell, upon the premises, by public auction, at 12:30 P. M., on MONDAY THE 18TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1880. MONDAY THE 18TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1880.

MONDAY THE 18TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1880. the above BXTRA AND HIGHLY-IMPROVED VINEYARD, which yields equal to any in the State, and where some of the celebrated grane wines are made. The soil is fertile and the location smoorhor. The improvements consist of a FRAME DWELLING of seven rooms, three of which are used as a wine-cellar for storage and manufacturing; stable, kitchen, reservoir, &c. There is upon the place an ice-house and pond, which is never dry. The pond is well stocked with fish, and so located that it is thoroughly and well shaded. There is a beautiful grove with benches, &c., through it. In fact, for a wine-garden its location and many advantages and surroundings make it peculiarly and specially sdispled. The present owner has spent thousands of dollars in money and thirteen years in labor and time, thereby insuring a perfect success in making this the most valuable vineyard in the State, and, being adjacent to the city limits, should attract attention. The opportunity here offered to secure property of this character is seldom had. Parties wishing to lovest are cordially invited and requested to inspect the vineyard before day of sale. Dr. McCarty will take pleasure and interest in showing it to them. An inspection is all that is asked.

TERMS: Will be cash as to the amount secured ($5,000) and all interest, with cost and expenses of sale; the residue upon a credit of one, two, and three years, with 6 per cent, interest added to the negotiable notes, and deed of trust. The title is perfect.

The DWELLING contains sine rooms; besides kitchen, stable, ras, water, bath, cu'verts, &c., on the premises. The LOT fronts 50 feet on the southwest corner of Laurel and Main streets, and is really a valuable and attractive one, and is the highest in elevation in that section of the city.

The street-cars pass in front of the door, making it especially convenient as a residence. The property lies directly opposite and above Monros Park, and a better situation cannot be obtained. The dwelling is in very good order.
